

| No | Idiom                           | Znaczenie                             | Użycie w zdaniu   |
|----|---------------------------------|---------------------------------------|---|
| 1  | Break the ice                   | przełamać lody                        | He told a joke to break the ice at the meeting.            |
| 2  | Under the weather               | źle się czuć                          | I'm feeling a bit under the weather today.                 |
| 3  | Once in a blue moon             | bardzo rzadko                         | We see each other once in a blue moon.                     |
| 4  | Spill the beans                 | wygadać się                           | She spilled the beans about the surprise party.            |
| 5  | Hit the nail on the head        | trafić w sedno                        | You really hit the nail on the head with that comment.     |
| 6  | A blessing in disguise          | szczęście w nieszczęściu              | Losing that job was a blessing in disguise.                |
| 7  | Better late than never          | lepiej późno niż wcale                | He finally apologized, better late than never.             |
| 8  | Break a leg                     | powodzenia                            | Break a leg in your performance tonight.                   |
| 9  | Cut corners                     | iść na skróty / oszczędzać na jakości | They cut corners when building the house.                  |
| 10 | Easy does it                    | spokojnie, powoli                     | Easy does it, don't rush.                                  |
| 11 | Get out of hand                 | wymknąć się spod kontroli             | The party got out of hand quickly.                         |
| 12 | Get your act together           | wziąć się w garść                     | You need to get your act together before the presentation. |
| 13 | Go the extra mile               | zrobić coś ponad oczekiwania          | She always goes the extra mile for her clients.            |
| 14 | Hang in there                   | trzymaj się                           | Hang in there, things will get better.                     |
| 15 | In hot water                    | w tarapatach                          | He found himself in hot water after missing the deadline.  |
| 16 | It takes two to tango           | coś wymaga dwóch stron                | Don't blame him alone, it takes two to tango.              |
| 17 | Jump on the bandwagon           | iść za trendem                        | Many companies jumped on the eco bandwagon.                |
| 18 | Keep your chin up               | głowa do góry                         | Keep your chin up, everything will be fine.                |
| 19 | Let the cat out of the bag      | zdradzić sekret                       | He let the cat out of the bag about the surprise.          |
| 20 | No pain, no gain                | bez pracy nie ma kołaczy              | You have to study hard; no pain, no gain.                  |
| 21 | Pull someone's leg              | nabierać kogoś                        | I was just pulling your leg about the news.                |
| 22 | Speak of the devil              | o wilku mowa                          | Speak of the devil, here he comes!                         |
| 23 | The ball is in your court       | piłka po twojej stronie               | I've done my part; now the ball is in your court.          |
| 24 | Time flies                      | czas leci                             | Time flies when you're having fun.                         |
| 25 | To make matters worse           | co gorsza                             | To make matters worse, it started raining.                 |
| 26 | Up in the air                   | niepewne                              | Our plans are still up in the air.                         |
| 27 | Your guess is as good as mine   | nie mam pojęcia                       | Who will win? Your guess is as good as mine.               |
| 28 | Bite the bullet                 | zaciągnąć zęby                        | I had to bite the bullet and accept the decision.          |
| 29 | Burn the midnight oil           | pracować do późna                     | She burned the midnight oil to finish the project.         |
| 30 | By the skin of your teeth       | o mało co                             | He passed the exam by the skin of his teeth.               |
| 31 | Cost an arm and a leg           | kosztować fortunę                     | That car costs an arm and a leg.                           |
| 32 | Cry over spilled milk           | ptać nad rozlanym mlekiem             | Don't cry over spilled milk; it's too late to change.      |
| 33 | Cut to the chase                | przejść do sedna                      | Let's cut to the chase and discuss the main issue.         |
| 34 | Every cloud has a silver lining | każda chmura ma srebrną podszywkę     | Don't worry; every cloud has a silver lining.              |
| 35 | Hit the sack                    | iść spać                              | I'm tired, I'm going to hit the sack.                      |
| 36 | Keep an eye on                  | mieć na oku                           | Keep an eye on the kids while cooking.                     |
| 37 | Piece of the action             | kawałek tortu / udział w czymś        | He wants a piece of the action.                            |
| 38 | Pull yourself together          | wziąć się w garść                     | Pull yourself together and calm down.                      |
| 39 | The best of both worlds         | najlepsze z dwóch światów             | Working part-time gives her the best of both worlds.       |
| 40 | Throw in the towel              | poddać się                            | After many failures, he finally threw in the towel.        |
| 41 | Break the bank                  | kosztować fortunę                     | That vacation would break the bank.                        |
| 42 | Go back to the drawing board    | wrócić do punktu wyjścia              | The plan failed, so we went back to the drawing board.     |
| 43 | Burn bridges                    | spalić mosty                          | He burned bridges with his former employer.                |
| 44 | Barking up the wrong tree       | mylić się co do przyczyny problemu    | If you think I did it, you're barking up the wrong tree.   |
| 45 | Hit the road                    | wyruszyć w drogę                      | We need to hit the road early tomorrow.                    |
| 46 | In a pickle                     | w kłopocie                            | I'm really in a pickle with this problem.                  |
| 47 | Jump the gun                    | wyprzedzać fakty                      | He jumped the gun and started without approval.            |
| 48 | Keep your fingers crossed       | trzymać kciuki                        | Keep your fingers crossed for me.                          |
| 49 | Let off steam                   | odreagować                            | He went for a run to let off steam.                        |
| 50 | Make a long story short         | krótko mówiąc                         | To make a long story short, we lost the match.             |
| 51 | No strings attached             | bez zobowiązań                        | You can use it, no strings attached.                       |
| 52 | Off the hook                    | odetchnąć, uniknąć kary               | He got off the hook because of a technicality.             |

| No  | Idiom                               | Znaczenie                                 | Użycie w zdaniu   |
|-----|-------------------------------------|---|---|
| 53  | Pull rank                           | używać wyższej pozycji                    | He pulled rank to get his way.                                 |
| 54  | Read between the lines              | czytać między wierszami                   | You have to read between the lines in his letter.              |
| 55  | Sit on the fence                    | nie zajmować stanowiska                   | He tends to sit on the fence during arguments.                 |
| 56  | Take it with a grain of salt        | traktować z rezerwą                       | Take his advice with a grain of salt.                          |
| 57  | The early bird catches the worm     | kto rano wstaje, temu Pan Bóg daje        | The early bird catches the worm, so wake up early.             |
| 58  | Through thick and thin              | na dobre i na złe                         | They stayed friends through thick and thin.                    |
| 59  | Throw caution to the wind           | zaryzykować                               | He threw caution to the wind and invested all his money.       |
| 60  | Time is money                       | czas to pieniądz                          | Don't waste time; time is money.                               |
| 61  | To each their own                   | co kto lubi                               | I don't like it, but to each their own.                        |
| 62  | Under your nose                     | tuż przed nosem                           | The keys were right under your nose.                           |
| 63  | Up to the mark                      | na odpowiednim poziomie                   | His work was up to the mark.                                   |
| 64  | Water under the bridge              | woda, która upłynęła                      | Don't worry about it, it's water under the bridge.             |
| 65  | Wear your heart on your sleeve      | okazywać uczucia otwarcie                 | He wears his heart on his sleeve.                              |
| 66  | Wild goose chase                    | pogoń za czymś niemożliwym                | Searching for the lost keys was a wild goose chase.            |
| 67  | You can't judge a book by its cover | nie oceniaj po wyglądzie                  | You can't judge a book by its cover.                           |
| 68  | Ace in the hole                     | as w rękawie                              | He kept an ace in the hole for the negotiation.                |
| 69  | Add fuel to the fire                | dodać oliwy do ognia                      | His comments only added fuel to the fire.                      |
| 70  | All ears                            | w pełni skupiony na słuchaniu             | I'm all ears, tell me what happened.                           |
| 71  | Bark is worse than your bite        | pies jest groźniejszy niż jego szczeranie | Don't worry about him; his bark is worse than his bite.        |
| 72  | Bite your tongue                    | powstrzymać się od powiedzenia czegoś     | I had to bite my tongue during the meeting.                    |
| 73  | By the book                         | zgodnie z zasadami                        | The manager did everything by the book.                        |
| 74  | Close but no cigar                  | prawie, ale nie do końca                  | He was close but no cigar in the competition.                  |
| 75  | Face the music                      | stawić czoła konsekwencjom                | He has to face the music after breaking the rules.             |
| 76  | Get a taste of your own medicine    | dostać nauczkę                            | He got a taste of his own medicine.                            |
| 77  | Go down in flames                   | skończyć katastrofą                       | The plan went down in flames.                                  |
| 78  | Hit the jackpot                     | wygrać na loterii / odnieść wielki sukces | He hit the jackpot with his new business.                      |
| 79  | Know the ropes                      | znać się na rzeczy                        | She knows the ropes of this job.                               |
| 80  | Let sleeping dogs lie               | nie wywołuj wilka z lasu                  | Let sleeping dogs lie; don't bring up old arguments.           |
| 81  | Make waves                          | wywołać poruszenie                        | His comments made waves in the office.                         |
| 82  | Miss the boat                       | przegapić okazję                          | He missed the boat by not applying in time.                    |
| 83  | Move heaven and earth               | zrobić wszystko, co możliwe               | She moved heaven and earth to get the project done.            |
| 84  | Once bitten, twice shy              | raz oszukany, drugi raz ostrożny          | Once bitten, twice shy, I won't trust him again.               |
| 85  | Out of the frying pan into the fire | z deszczu pod rynnę                       | He went out of the frying pan into the fire by changing jobs.  |
| 86  | Play it safe                        | grać bezpiecznie                          | I decided to play it safe and not invest.                      |
| 87  | Pull the plug                       | zakończyć coś                             | The company pulled the plug on the project.                    |
| 88  | Put two and two together            | wyciągnąć wnioski                         | I put two and two together and realized the truth.             |
| 89  | Rain on someone's parade            | zepsuć komuś plany                        | I didn't mean to rain on your parade.                          |
| 90  | Shoot from the hip                  | mówić bez zastanowienia                   | He tends to shoot from the hip in meetings.                    |
| 91  | Sit tight                           | czekać cierpliwie                         | Sit tight, the doctor will see you soon.                       |
| 92  | Skeleton in the closet              | tajemnica                                 | He has a skeleton in the closet.                               |
| 93  | Smell a rat                         | coś jest podejrzane                       | I smell a rat in this deal.                                    |
| 94  | Take the bull by the horns          | wziąć byka za rogi                        | She took the bull by the horns and confronted the manager.     |
| 95  | The icing on the cake               | wisienka na torcie                        | Winning the bonus was the icing on the cake.                   |
| 96  | Throw someone under the bus         | poświęcić kogoś dla własnej korzyści      | He threw his colleague under the bus.                          |
| 97  | Under the table                     | nielegalnie / potajemnie                  | He was paid under the table.                                   |
| 98  | Up in arms                          | oburzony                                  | The citizens were up in arms about the decision.               |
| 99  | Up the creek without a paddle       | w tarapatach                              | We were up the creek without a paddle when the car broke down. |
| 100 | Vanish into thin air                | rozpływnąć się                            | The magician made the rabbit vanish into thin air.             |
| 101 | Variety is the spice of life        | urozmaicenie to przyprawa życia           | Try different hobbies; variety is the spice of life.           |
| 102 | Watch your back                     | uważaj                                    | Watch your back in that neighborhood.                          |
| 103 | Wet blanket                         | ktoś psujący zabawę                       | Don't be a wet blanket.  |
| 104 | Wild and woolly                     | dziki, chaotyczny                         | The wild and woolly party lasted all night.                    |

| No  | Idiom                                       | Znaczenie                               | Użycie w zdaniu                                    |
|-----|---|---|--|
| 105 | You can't have your cake and eat it too     | nie można mieć ciastka i zjeść ciastka  | You can't have your cake and eat it too.           |
| 106 | Your heart skips a beat                     | serce podskakuje                        | My heart skipped a beat when I saw her.            |
| 107 | Zip your lip                                | zamknąć się                             | Zip your lip about the surprise.                   |
| 108 | Zero tolerance                              | zerowa tolerancja                       | The school has zero tolerance for bullying.        |
| 109 | Ace up your sleeve                          | as w rękawie                            | He had an ace up his sleeve.                       |
| 110 | All in the same boat                        | w tej samej sytuacji                    | We are all in the same boat.                       |
| 111 | Ballpark figure                             | przybliżona liczba                      | Can you give me a ballpark figure?                 |
| 112 | Devil's advocate                            | adwokat diabła                          | I'll play devil's advocate for a moment.           |
| 113 | Down to earth                               | praktyczny, realistyczny                | She's very down to earth and easy to talk to.      |
| 114 | Fight fire with fire                        | walczyć ogniem z ogniem                 | Sometimes you have to fight fire with fire.        |
| 115 | Fly off the handle                          | wpaść w szatę                           | He flew off the handle when he heard the news.     |
| 116 | Get a kick out of                           | czerpać przyjemność                     | I get a kick out of watching comedies.             |
| 117 | Go back to square one                       | wrócić do punktu wyjścia                | The experiment failed; we went back to square one. |
| 118 | Hang by a thread                            | wisieć na włosku                        | His life was hanging by a thread.                  |
| 119 | Have a change of heart                      | zmienić zdanie                          | She had a change of heart about the trip.          |
| 120 | Have a lot on your plate                    | mieć dużo na głowie                     | I have a lot on my plate this week.                |
| 121 | In a nutshell                               | w skrócie                               | In a nutshell, the project was a success.          |
| 122 | In the nick of time                         | w ostatniej chwili                      | He arrived in the nick of time.                    |
| 123 | Last but not least                          | ostatni, ale nie mniej ważny            | Last but not least, thanks to everyone.            |
| 124 | Let bygones be bygones                      | niech przeszłość zostanie w przeszłości | Let bygones be bygones and move on.                |
| 125 | Like a fish out of water                    | jak ryba wyjęta z wody                  | He felt like a fish out of water at the party.     |
| 126 | Make a mountain out of a molehill           | robić z igły widły                      | Don't make a mountain out of a molehill.           |
| 127 | Miss the mark                               | nie trafić w cel                        | His comment missed the mark.                       |
| 128 | Off the cuff                                | bez przygotowania                       | He spoke off the cuff.                             |
| 129 | On the dot                                  | punktualnie                             | The train arrives on the dot.                      |
| 130 | On the same page                            | być zgodnym                             | We need to be on the same page.                    |
| 131 | Over the top                                | przesadny                               | His reaction was over the top.                     |
| 132 | Pass the buck                               | zrzucić odpowiedzialność                | Don't pass the buck.                               |
| 133 | Pull strings                                | wykorzystać wpływy                      | He pulled strings to get the job.                  |
| 134 | Put your money where your mouth is          | pokazać, że potrafisz                   | Put your money where your mouth is.                |
| 135 | Read the riot act                           | upomnieć                                | The teacher read the riot act to the students.     |
| 136 | Rock the boat                               | robić zamieszanie                       | Don't rock the boat.                               |
| 137 | Run like the wind                           | biec jak wiatr                          | He ran like the wind to catch the bus.             |
| 138 | Sleep on it                                 | przespać się z decyzją                  | I need to sleep on it.                             |
| 139 | Steal the show                              | przyćmić innych                         | Her performance stole the show.                    |
| 140 | Take a rain check                           | przełożyć                               | I'll take a rain check on dinner.                  |
| 141 | The best thing since sliced bread           | świetny pomysł                          | This app is the best thing since sliced bread.     |
| 142 | Touch base                                  | skontaktować się                        | Let's touch base next week.                        |
| 143 | Turn a blind eye                            | przymknąć oko                           | The teacher turned a blind eye.                    |
| 144 | Two peas in a pod                           | jak dwie krople wody                    | They are two peas in a pod.                        |
| 145 | Up to scratch                               | na odpowiednim poziomie                 | His work is up to scratch.                         |
| 146 | Walk on eggshells                           | chodzić jak po cienkim lodzie           | I had to walk on eggshells around him.             |
| 147 | Break even                                  | wyjść na zero                           | The company barely broke even this year.           |
| 148 | Call the shots                              | dyktować warunki                        | She calls the shots in the office.                 |
| 149 | Cut and dried                               | jasne, gotowe                           | The instructions were cut and dried.               |
| 150 | Don't count your chickens before they hatch | nie dzielić skóry na niedźwiedzicu      | Don't count your chickens before they hatch.       |
| 151 | Down for the count                          | pokonany                                | After the argument, he was down for the count.     |
| 152 | Eat humble pie                              | przyznać się do błędu                   | He had to eat humble pie after the mistake.        |
| 153 | Face up to                                  | stawić czoła                            | You must face up to your responsibilities.         |
| 154 | Fly by the seat of your pants               | improwizować                            | We had to fly by the seat of our pants.            |
| 155 | Get a second wind                           | złapać nową energię                     | I got a second wind after a short break.           |
| 156 | Get cold feet                               | stchórzyć                               | She got cold feet before the presentation.         |

| No  | Idiom                                 | Znaczenie                           | Użycie w zdaniu  |
|-----|---------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|--|
| 157 | Give the benefit of the doubt         | dać kredyt zaufania                 | I'll give him the benefit of the doubt.                 |
| 158 | Go out on a limb                      | zaryzykować                         | I went out on a limb and proposed the idea.             |
| 159 | Have a chip on your shoulder          | być urażonym                        | He has a chip on his shoulder about the promotion.      |
| 160 | Head over heels                       | zakochany po uszy                   | She fell head over heels in love.                       |
| 161 | Hold your horses                      | wstrzymać się                       | Hold your horses; we're not leaving yet.                |
| 162 | In the doghouse                       | w niefasce                          | He's in the doghouse with his wife.                     |
| 163 | Jump through hoops                    | pokonywać trudności                 | She jumped through hoops to get the visa.               |
| 164 | Keep your nose clean                  | trzymać się z daleka od kłopotów    | Keep your nose clean while at work.                     |
| 165 | Knock on wood                         | odpukać w niemalowane               | Knock on wood, everything is fine.                      |
| 166 | Last laugh                            | ostatni śmiech                      | He had the last laugh after winning the lawsuit.        |
| 167 | Leave someone high and dry            | zostawić na lodzie                  | They left us high and dry with the project.             |
| 168 | Neck of the woods                     | okolica                             | It's a quiet neck of the woods.                         |
| 169 | Not worth a dime                      | nic nie warty                       | That old phone isn't worth a dime.                      |
| 170 | Off the beaten track                  | na uboczu                           | They live off the beaten track.                         |
| 171 | On the house                          | gratis                              | The drinks were on the house.                           |
| 172 | Out of the question                   | wykluczone                          | That's out of the question.                             |
| 173 | Pay through the nose                  | zapłacić fortunę                    | I paid through the nose for this car.                   |
| 174 | Run-of-the-mill                       | przeciętny                          | It was a run-of-the-mill movie.                         |
| 175 | See eye to eye                        | zgadzać się                         | We see eye to eye on this matter.                       |
| 176 | Sleep like a log                      | spać jak susz                       | I slept like a log last night.                          |
| 177 | Steal someone's thunder               | ukraść czyjeś pomysły               | She stole my thunder by announcing it first.            |
| 178 | Take it easy                          | wyluzować                           | Take it easy and relax.                                 |
| 179 | The devil is in the details           | diabeł tkwi w szczegółach           | Be careful; the devil is in the details.                |
| 180 | The elephant in the room              | oczywisty problem, temat tabu       | Let's address the elephant in the room.                 |
| 181 | Turn the tables                       | odwrócić sytuację na swoją korzyść  | She turned the tables in the negotiation.               |
| 182 | Walk a mile in someone's shoes        | postawić się w czymś sytuacji       | Try to walk a mile in her shoes.                        |
| 183 | Wear many hats                        | pełnić wiele ról                    | She wears many hats at work.                            |
| 184 | When it rains, it pours               | nieszczęścia chodzą parami          | When it rains, it pours - one problem followed another. |
| 185 | Wild card                             | nieprzewidywalna osoba              | He's the wild card in the team.                         |
| 186 | Win hands down                        | wygrać bez wysiłku                  | She won hands down.                                     |
| 187 | Wrap your head around                 | pojąć coś                           | I can't wrap my head around this problem.               |
| 188 | Zero in on                            | skupić się na                       | Let's zero in on the main issue.                        |
| 189 | All bark and no bite                  | dużo gadać, mało robić              | He's all bark and no bite.                              |
| 190 | At the drop of a hat                  | natychmiast                         | She leaves at the drop of a hat.                        |
| 191 | Back to the wall                      | pod ścianą                          | We were back to the wall in the negotiations.           |
| 192 | Bite the hand that feeds you          | kąsać rękę, która karmi             | Don't bite the hand that feeds you.                     |
| 193 | Cross that bridge when you come to it | rozwiązać problem, gdy się pojawi   | We'll cross that bridge when we come to it.             |
| 194 | Cry wolf                              | wywołać fałszywy alarm              | Don't cry wolf.   |
| 195 | Get a word in edgewise                | wtrącić się                         | I couldn't get a word in edgewise.                      |
| 196 | Hold your tongue                      | powstrzymać się od mówienia         | He held his tongue.                                     |
| 197 | Keep your eyes peeled                 | mieć oczy szeroko otwarte           | Keep your eyes peeled for the package.                  |
| 198 | Kick the bucket                       | umrzeć                              | He kicked the bucket last year.                         |
| 199 | Not playing with a full deck          | nie do końca przy zdrowych zmysłach | He's not playing with a full deck.                      |
| 200 | Out of the blue                       | nagle                               | Out of the blue, she called me.                         |
| 201 | Out of your depth                     | poza czymś możliwościami            | I was out of my depth in the discussion.                |
| 202 | Play it by ear                        | improwizować                        | Let's play it by ear.                                   |
| 203 | The tip of the iceberg                | wierzchołek góry lodowej            | What you see is just the tip of the iceberg.            |
| 204 | The whole nine yards                  | wszystko, co możliwe                | He gave it the whole nine yards.                        |
| 205 | Turn over a new leaf                  | zacząć od nowa                      | He turned over a new leaf.                              |
| 206 | Up to no good                         | knuć coś złego                      | He's up to no good.                                     |
| 207 | Up to your ears                       | po uszy w czymś                     | I'm up to my ears in work.                              |
| 208 | Use your loaf                         | użyj głowy                          | Use your loaf before deciding.                          |

| No  | Idiom                           | Znaczenie                            | Użycie w zdaniu  |
|-----|---------------------------------|--------------------------------------|--|
| 209 | When pigs fly                   | kiedy piekło zamarznie               | I'll believe it when pigs fly.                    |
| 210 | Bite the dust                   | paść                                 | Many companies bit the dust during the recession. |
| 211 | In the bag                      | pewne, w kieszeni                    | The deal is in the bag.                           |
| 212 | Keep your cool                  | zachować spokój                      | Keep your cool during the interview.              |
| 213 | Knock your socks off            | zachwycić                            | The movie knocked my socks off.                   |
| 214 | Leave no stone unturned         | nie pozostawić niczego przypadkowi   | We'll leave no stone unturned.                    |
| 215 | On cloud nine                   | w siódmym niebie                     | She's on cloud nine.                              |
| 216 | Put a sock in it                | zamknąć się                          | Put a sock in it, now.                            |
| 217 | Put your foot in your mouth     | palnąć głupstwo                      | He put his foot in his mouth.                     |
| 218 | Shoot the breeze                | pogadać                              | We spent the evening shooting the breeze.         |
| 219 | The sky's the limit             | nie ma ograniczeń                    | With your talent, the sky's the limit.            |
| 220 | Wet behind the ears             | niedoświadczony                      | He's wet behind the ears.                         |
| 221 | With flying colors              | śpiewająco                           | She passed the test with flying colors.           |
| 222 | You can say that again          | zgadzam się w %                      | "It's hot today."                                 |
| 223 | On the ball                     | czujny, ogarnięty                    | She's on the ball.                                |
| 224 | On thin ice                     | na cienkim lodzie                    | You're on thin ice.                               |
| 225 | Out of the woods                | poza niebezpieczeństwem              | The patient is out of the woods.                  |
| 226 | Put all your eggs in one basket | postawić wszystko na jedną kartę     | Don't put all your eggs in one basket.            |
| 227 | Stick to your guns              | pozostać przy swoim                  | Stick to your guns.                               |
| 228 | The last straw                  | ostatnia kropla                      | His rudeness was the last straw.                  |
| 229 | Two heads are better than one   | dwie głowy lepsze niż jedna          | Two heads are better than one.                    |
| 230 | Beat around the bush            | owijać w bawelnę                     | Stop beating around the bush.                     |
| 231 | Behind the eight ball           | w trudnej sytuacji                   | We were behind the eight ball.                    |
| 232 | Bite off more than you can chew | wziąć na siebie za dużo              | I bit off more than I could chew.                 |
| 233 | By and large                    | ogólnie rzecz biorąc                 | By and large, it's a good plan.                   |
| 234 | Call it a day                   | zakończyć na dziś                    | Let's call it a day.                              |
| 235 | Cast in stone                   | niezmienny                           | The rules are not cast in stone.                  |
| 236 | Cold shoulder                   | dać komuś kosza                      | She gave him the cold shoulder.                   |
| 237 | Cross your heart                | przysiągać                           | Cross your heart you'll tell the truth.           |
| 238 | Don't hold your breath          | nie nastawiaj się                    | Don't hold your breath waiting for him.           |
| 239 | Down to the wire                | do ostatniej chwili                  | It went down to the wire.                         |
| 240 | Drive someone up the wall       | doprowadzać do szatu                 | He drives me up the wall.                         |
| 241 | Feather in your cap             | powód do dumy                        | Winning was a feather in his cap.                 |
| 242 | Get down to business            | przejść do sedna                     | Let's get down to business.                       |
| 243 | Get off on the wrong foot       | zacząć źle                           | We got off on the wrong foot.                     |
| 244 | Give it a shot                  | spróbować                            | Give it a shot.                                   |
| 245 | Go overboard                    | przesadzić                           | Don't go overboard.                               |
| 246 | Hit the books                   | wkuwać                               | I need to hit the books.                          |
| 247 | It's not rocket science         | to nie jest trudne                   | It's not rocket science.                          |
| 248 | Kill two birds with one stone   | upiec dwie pieczenie na jednym ogniu | I killed two birds with one stone.                |
| 249 | Level playing field             | równe szanse                         | We need a level playing field.                    |
| 250 | Make ends meet                  | wiązać koniec z końcem               | It's hard to make ends meet.                      |
| 251 | Method to the madness           | metoda w szaleństwie                 | There's a method to the madness.                  |
| 252 | Off the record                  | nieoficjalnie                        | He told me off the record.                        |
| 253 | On pins and needles             | w niepewności                        | I'm on pins and needles waiting.                  |
| 254 | Out of your league              | poza czymś zasięgiem                 | She's out of your league.                         |
| 255 | Over the moon                   | bardzo szczęśliwy                    | She's over the moon.                              |
| 256 | Piece of cake                   | butka z masłem                       | The test was a piece of cake.                     |
| 257 | Rome wasn't built in a day      | nie od razu Rzym zbudowano           | Rome wasn't built in a day.                       |
| 258 | Saved by the bell               | uratowany w ostatniej chwili         | I was saved by the bell.                          |
| 259 | Shoot yourself in the foot      | zaszkodzić sobie samemu              | He shot himself in the foot.                      |
| 260 | Be snowed under                 | być zawałonym pracą                  | I'm snowed under with deadlines this week.        |

| No  | Idiom                            | Znaczenie                   | Użycie w zdaniu                                   |
|-----|----------------------------------|-----------------------------|---|
| 261 | Bend over backwards              | bardzo się starać           | She bent over backwards to help her team.  |
| 262 | Blow off steam                   | wyładować emocje            | He goes running to blow off steam.         |
| 263 | Burn bridges                     | palić za sobą mosty         | Don't burn bridges when you leave a job.   |
| 264 | Catch someone red-handed         | złapać na gorącym uczynku   | They caught him red-handed stealing.       |
| 265 | Rain or shine                    | bez względu na okoliczności | I go jogging every morning, rain or shine. |
| 266 | Cut someone some slack           | być dla kogoś wyrozumiałym  | Cut her some slack, she's new here.        |
| 267 | Drop the ball                    | zawalić sprawę              | He dropped the ball on that project.       |
| 268 | Draw the line                    | postawić granicę            | I draw the line at working weekends.       |
| 269 | Ease someone's mind              | uspokoić kogoś              | The email eased my mind.                   |
| 270 | Get the hang of something        | załapać coś                 | I finally got the hang of driving.         |
| 271 | Go cold turkey                   | rzucić coś nagle            | He quit smoking cold turkey.               |
| 272 | Hit a dead end                   | trafić w ślepy zaułek       | Our investigation hit a dead end.          |
| 273 | In the long run                  | na dłuższą metę             | It'll pay off in the long run.             |
| 274 | Keep something under wraps       | trzymać coś w tajemnicy     | The project is still under wraps.          |
| 275 | Leave someone in the dark        | trzymać kogoś w niewiedzy   | They left us in the dark.                  |
| 276 | Make a big deal out of something | robić z igły widły          | Don't make a big deal out of it.           |
| 277 | Make up your mind                | zdecydować się              | Make up your mind already.                 |
| 278 | Move the goalposts               | zmieniać zasady w trakcie   | They keep moving the goalposts.            |
| 279 | Not my cup of tea                | nie w moim guście           | Horror movies aren't my cup of tea.        |
| 280 | On short notice                  | na ostatnią chwilę          | Thanks for coming on such short notice.    |
| 281 | Out of the loop                  | poza obiegiem informacji    | I'm out of the loop on this issue.         |
| 282 | Pull yourself together           | ogarnąć się                 | Pull yourself together and focus.          |
| 283 | Raise eyebrows                   | wzbudzić zdziwienie         | His comment raised eyebrows.               |
| 284 | Read between the lines           | czytać między wierszami     | You need to read between the lines.        |
| 285 | Ring a bell                      | coś komuś swita             | That name rings a bell.                    |
| 286 | Rule of thumb                    | ogólna zasada               | As a rule of thumb, save %.                |
| 287 | Short end of the stick           | gorsza część                | He got the short end of the stick.         |
| 288 | Sweep something under the rug    | zamiatać pod dywan          | They swept the issue under the rug.        |
| 289 | Take something for granted       | brać coś za pewnik          | Don't take her help for granted.           |
| 290 | Think outside the box            | myśleć nieszablonowo        | We need to think outside the box.          |
| 291 | Throw someone off                | wybić kogoś z rytmu         | That question threw me off.                |
| 292 | Under pressure                   | pod presją                  | He works well under pressure.              |
| 293 | Wear someone out                 | wykończyć kogoś             | The trip really wore me out.               |
| 294 | What goes around comes around    | karma wraca                 | Be kind; what goes around comes around.    |
| 295 | Work against the clock           | pracować pod presją czasu   | We're working against the clock.           |
| 296 | Worth your while                 | warte zachodu               | It's worth your while.                     |
| 297 | Get your wires crossed           | źle się zrozumieć           | We got our wires crossed.                  |
| 298 | Hit close to home                | dotknąć osobiście           | That story hit close to home.              |
| 299 | In black and white               | czarno na białym            | It's written in black and white.           |
| 300 | Lose track of time               | stracić poczucie czasu      | I lost track of time.                      |
| 301 | Make yourself at home            | czuć się jak u siebie       | Make yourself at home.                     |
| 302 | On second thought                | po namyśle                  | On second thought, let's wait.             |
| 303 | Across the board                 | we wszystkich obszarach     | Prices went up across the board.           |
| 304 | Ahead of the curve               | wyprzedzać trendy           | She's ahead of the curve in marketing.     |
| 305 | At your fingertips               | na wyciągnięcie ręki        | All the data is at your fingertips.        |
| 306 | Back on your feet                | stanąć na nogi              | He's finally back on his feet.             |
| 307 | Ball is rolling                  | coś ruszyło                 | The project is rolling now.                |
| 308 | Bear in mind                     | mieć na uwadze              | Bear in mind that it takes time.           |
| 309 | Behind closed doors              | za zamkniętymi drzwiami     | The decision was made behind closed doors. |
| 310 | Below the radar                  | niepostrzeżenie             | He stayed below the radar.                 |
| 311 | Bring something to the table     | wnieść wartość              | She brings experience to the table.        |
| 312 | Change your tune                 | zmienić zdanie              | He quickly changed his tune.               |

| No  | Idiom                            | Znaczenie                     | Użycie w zdaniu                                    |
|-----|----------------------------------|-------------------------------|--|
| 313 | Clear the air                    | wyjaśnić napięcia             | Let's clear the air.                        |
| 314 | Come out of your shell           | otworzyć się                  | She came out of her shell.                  |
| 315 | Cover your bases                 | zabezpieczyć się              | Let's cover all bases.                      |
| 316 | Cut to size                      | sprowadzić na ziemię          | He was cut to size by his boss.             |
| 317 | Don't push your luck             | nie igrać z losem             | You got a warning, so don't push your luck. |
| 318 | Drop hints                       | dawać aluzje                  | She kept dropping hints.                    |
| 319 | Fall into place                  | wszystko się układa           | Things finally fell into place.             |
| 320 | From scratch                     | od zera                       | We built the website from scratch.          |
| 321 | Get the ball rolling             | zacząć                        | Let's get the ball rolling.                 |
| 322 | Go with the flow                 | pływać z nurtem               | Just go with the flow.                      |
| 323 | Have mixed feelings              | mieć mieszane uczucia         | I have mixed feelings about it.             |
| 324 | Hold the fort                    | pilnować spraw                | Can you hold the fort?                      |
| 325 | In the spotlight                 | w centrum uwagi               | She's in the spotlight now.                 |
| 326 | Keep something at bay            | trzymać coś na dystans        | He keeps stress at bay.                     |
| 327 | Learn the hard way               | nauczyć się na błędach        | I learned the hard way.                     |
| 328 | Make a scene                     | robić scenę                   | Don't make a scene.                         |
| 329 | Make yourself scarce             | zniknąć                       | He made himself scarce.                     |
| 330 | Mean business                    | mówić serio                   | She means business.                         |
| 331 | Miss the point                   | nie zrozumieć sedna           | You missed the point.                       |
| 332 | No hard feelings                 | bez urazy                     | No hard feelings, okay?                     |
| 333 | Not out of the woods             | nie po wszystkim              | We're not out of the woods yet.             |
| 334 | On the same wavelength           | nadawać na tych samych falach | We're on the same wavelength.               |
| 335 | Out of character                 | nie w czymś stylu             | That was out of character.                  |
| 336 | Over your head                   | ponad twoimi możliwościami    | That task is over my head.                  |
| 337 | Play along                       | grać w grę                    | I played along.                             |
| 338 | Put something on hold            | wstrzymać                     | The project is on hold.                     |
| 339 | Read the room                    | wyczuć atmosferę              | You need to read the room.                  |
| 340 | Rise to the occasion             | sprostać wyzwaniu             | She rose to the occasion.                   |
| 341 | Shake things up                  | namieszać                     | Let's shake things up.                      |
| 342 | Speak volumes                    | mówić wiele (bez słów)        | Her silence spoke volumes.                  |
| 343 | Stand your ground                | stać przy swoim               | He stood his ground.                        |
| 344 | Step out of line                 | przekroczyć granicę           | You really stepped out of line.             |
| 345 | Take a back seat                 | zejść na drugi plan           | He took a back seat.                        |
| 346 | Take something at face value     | brać coś dosłownie            | Don't take it at face value.                |
| 347 | That ship has sailed             | za późno                      | Sorry, that ship has sailed.                |
| 348 | Think on your feet               | szybko reagować               | You need to think on your feet.             |
| 349 | Throw your weight around         | nadużywać władzy              | He throws his weight around.                |
| 350 | Under one roof                   | pod jednym dachem             | We all live under one roof.                 |
| 351 | Walk away from                   | zrezygnować                   | He walked away from the deal.               |
| 352 | As luck would have it            | jak na złość / na szczęście   | As luck would have it, we met again.        |
| 353 | At a crossroads                  | na rozdrożu                   | She's at a crossroads in her career.        |
| 354 | Back someone up                  | poprzeć kogoś                 | I'll back you up if needed.                 |
| 355 | Be on the safe side              | dmuchać na zimne              | Take an umbrella to be on the safe side.    |
| 356 | Bite your lip                    | powstrzymać emocje            | He bit his lip and stayed quiet.            |
| 357 | Blow something out of proportion | wyolbrzymić                   | You're blowing it out of proportion.        |
| 358 | Break rank(s)                    | wyłamać się                   | One member broke ranks.                     |
| 359 | Bring something up               | poruszyć temat                | She brought it up gently.                   |
| 360 | By all means                     | oczywiście                    | By all means, go ahead.                     |
| 361 | Come clean                       | przyznać się                  | He finally came clean.                      |
| 362 | Come to terms with               | pogodzić się z                | She came to terms with the decision.        |
| 363 | Cut someone off                  | przerwać komuś                | He cut me off mid-sentence.                 |
| 364 | Do someone a favor               | wyśniąć przysługę             | Can you do me a favor?                      |

| No  | Idiom                            | Znaczenie                 | Użycie w zdaniu                             |
|-----|----------------------------------|---------------------------|---|
| 365 | Draw a blank                     | mieć pustkę w głowie      | I drew a blank during the test.             |
| 366 | Fall flat                        | nie wypalić               | The joke fell flat.                         |
| 367 | Get carried away                 | ponieść się               | He got carried away with spending.          |
| 368 | Get something out of your system | wyrzucić z siebie         | I needed to get it out of my system.        |
| 369 | Give someone a heads-up          | uprzedzić                 | Thanks for the heads-up.                    |
| 370 | Go against the grain             | iść pod prąd              | That idea goes against the grain.           |
| 371 | Have second thoughts             | mieć wątpliwości          | I'm having second thoughts.                 |
| 372 | In good hands                    | w dobrych rękach          | You're in good hands.                       |
| 373 | In hindsight                     | z perspektywy czasu       | In hindsight, it was obvious.               |
| 374 | Jump to conclusions              | wyciągać pochopne wnioski | Don't jump to conclusions.                  |
| 375 | Keep a low profile               | nie rzucać się w oczy     | He kept a low profile.                      |
| 376 | Let it slide                     | odpuścić                  | I'll let it slide this time.                |
| 377 | Make a comeback                  | wrócić do formy           | She made a strong comeback.                 |
| 378 | Miss the mark                    | chybić                    | The comment missed the mark.                |
| 379 | Not sit well with someone        | nie pasować komuś         | That decision didn't sit well with me.      |
| 380 | On a whim                        | pod wpływem impulsu       | We left on a whim.                          |
| 381 | Out of the picture               | poza sprawą               | He's out of the picture now.                |
| 382 | Overstep the mark                | przekroczyć granicę       | She overstepped the mark.                   |
| 383 | Put in a good word               | polecić                   | She put in a good word for me.              |
| 384 | Run its course                   | dobiec końca              | Let the process run its course.             |
| 385 | See how things go                | zobaczyć, jak się potoczy | Let's see how things go.                    |
| 386 | Set the record straight          | wyjaśnić                  | He set the record straight.                 |
| 387 | Slip someone's mind              | wylecieć z głowy          | It slipped my mind.                         |
| 388 | Stick around                     | zostać                    | Stick around for a bit.                     |
| 389 | Take a toll on                   | odbić się na czymś        | Stress took a toll on her health.           |
| 390 | Take something personally        | brać coś do siebie        | Don't take it personally.                   |
| 391 | Think twice                      | zastanowić się dwa razy   | Think twice before quitting.                |
| 392 | To no avail                      | bez skutku                | They tried to help, but to no avail.        |
| 393 | Up to speed                      | na bieżąco                | I'll get you up to speed.                   |
| 394 | Walk the line                    | balansować                | He walks the line between honesty and tact. |
| 395 | Wear thin                        | zużywać się / męczyć      | My patience is wearing thin.                |
| 396 | Without a hitch                  | bez problemów             | The event went off without a hitch.         |
| 397 | At the end of the day            | koniec końców             | At the end of the day, family matters most. |
| 398 | All hands on deck                | wszyscy do pomocy         | It's all hands on deck today.               |
| 399 | Back and forth                   | tam i z powrotem          | We emailed back and forth for days.         |
| 400 | Be in two minds                  | wahać się                 | I'm in two minds about moving.              |
| 401 | Behind schedule                  | opóźniony                 | The project is behind schedule.             |
| 402 | Call someone out                 | wytnąć komuś              | She called him out on his behavior.         |
| 403 | Carry weight                     | mieć znaczenie            | His opinion carries weight.                 |
| 404 | Come full circle                 | zatoczyć koło             | The story came full circle.                 |
| 405 | Down the road                    | w przyszłości             | We'll deal with it down the road.           |
| 406 | Draw the short straw             | mieć pecha                | I drew the short straw and worked late.     |
| 407 | Face value                       | dosłowne znaczenie        | Don't take it at face value.                |
| 408 | Fall into someone's lap          | przyjść łatwo             | The job fell into his lap.                  |
| 409 | Get your priorities straight     | ustawić priorytety        | You need to get your priorities straight.   |
| 410 | Go off track                     | zejść z tematu            | The meeting went off track.                 |
| 411 | Hang by a thread                 | wisieć na włosku          | His job is hanging by a thread.             |
| 412 | Have a say                       | mieć coś do powiedzenia   | Everyone should have a say.                 |
| 413 | In plain sight                   | na widoku                 | The answer was in plain sight.              |
| 414 | Keep something in mind           | pamiętać o czymś          | Keep this in mind.                          |
| 415 | Leave a bad taste                | pozostawić niesmak        | The comment left a bad taste.               |
| 416 | Make room for                    | zrobić miejsce            | We need to make room for changes.           |

| No  | Idiom                          | Znaczenie                      | Użycie w zdaniu   |
|-----|--------------------------------|--------------------------------|---|
| 417 | Off the top of your head       | bez zastanowienia              | Off the top of my head, I'd say yes.                   |
| 418 | On your own                    | samodzielnie                   | You'll have to do it on your own.                      |
| 419 | Out of line                    | nie na miejscu                 | That remark was out of line.                           |
| 420 | Pick up the pace               | przyspieszyć                   | We need to pick up the pace.                           |
| 421 | Put someone at ease            | uspokoić kogoś                 | Her smile put me at ease.                              |
| 422 | Right off the bat              | od razu                        | He agreed right off the bat.                           |
| 423 | Run out of steam               | stracić energię                | I ran out of steam halfway through.                    |
| 424 | See something coming           | przewidzieć                    | I didn't see that coming.                              |
| 425 | Sit well with someone          | pasować komuś                  | That idea doesn't sit well with me.                    |
| 426 | Take something lightly         | bagatelizować                  | Don't take this lightly.                               |
| 427 | That rings true                | brzmi prawdziwie               | What she said rings true.                              |
| 428 | Through and through            | na wskroś                      | He's honest through and through.                       |
| 429 | Under the impression           | być przekonanym                | I was under the impression you knew.                   |
| 430 | Up for grabs                   | do wzięcia                     | The tickets are up for grabs.                          |
| 431 | Walk someone through something | przeprowadzić kogoś przez coś  | She walked me through the process.                     |
| 432 | Wear many faces                | mieć wiele oblicz              | The city wears many faces.                             |
| 433 | Without further ado            | bez zbędnych ceregieli         | Without further ado, let's begin.                      |
| 434 | Worth noting                   | warte uwagi                    | It's worth noting that prices changed.                 |
| 435 | You name it                    | co tylko chcesz                | They sell everything—you name it.                      |
| 436 | Zoom in on                     | skupić się                     | Let's zoom in on the problem.                          |
| 437 | In one piece                   | cały i zdrowy                  | We arrived in one piece.                               |
| 438 | Make do                        | radzić sobie                   | We'll have to make do.                                 |
| 439 | Add fuel to the fire           | dolewać oliwy do ognia         | His comment only added fuel to the fire.               |
| 440 | At odds with                   | być w konflikcie z             | His actions are at odds with his words.                |
| 441 | Be caught off guard            | dać się zaskoczyć              | I was caught off guard by the question.                |
| 442 | Bend the rules                 | naginać zasady                 | They bent the rules to finish on time.                 |
| 443 | Blow the whistle               | ujawnić nadużycia              | She decided to blow the whistle.                       |
| 444 | Call someone's bluff           | sprawdzić czy ktoś blefuje     | He called their bluff during negotiations.             |
| 445 | Come to light                  | wyjść na jaw                   | New facts came to light.                               |
| 446 | Cross a line                   | przekroczyć granicę            | That joke crossed a line.                              |
| 447 | Dig your heels in              | uprzeć się                     | He dug his heels in and refused to apologize.          |
| 448 | Fall on deaf ears              | trafić w próżnię               | My warnings fell on deaf ears.                         |
| 449 | Give someone the runaround     | zbywać kogoś                   | Customer service gave me the runaround.                |
| 450 | Go down that road              | iść w tym kierunku             | I'm not ready to go down that road.                    |
| 451 | Have bigger fish to fry        | mieć ważniejsze sprawy         | I have bigger fish to fry today.                       |
| 452 | In the same breath             | jednocześnie                   | She criticized him and praised him in the same breath. |
| 453 | Keep someone in the loop       | informować na bieżąco          | Please keep me in the loop.                            |
| 454 | Leave something open-ended     | pozostawić bez rozstrzygnięcia | The ending was left open-ended.                        |
| 455 | Lose sight of                  | stracić z oczu (cel)           | Don't lose sight of your goals.                        |
| 456 | Make a judgment call           | podjąć trudną decyzję          | I had to make a judgment call.                         |
| 457 | Make no bones about it         | nie owijać w bawelnę           | He made no bones about his dislike.                    |
| 458 | Not add up                     | nie trzymać się logiki         | His explanation doesn't add up.                        |
| 459 | On the brink of                | na skraju                      | She's on the brink of quitting.                        |
| 460 | Paint yourself into a corner   | zapędzić się w koziego róg     | He painted himself into a corner.                      |
| 461 | Pass muster                    | spełniać standardy             | The report didn't pass muster.                         |
| 462 | Put the cart before the horse  | pomylić kolejność              | You're putting the cart before the horse.              |
| 463 | Raise the bar                  | podnieść poprzeczkę            | This project really raised the bar.                    |
| 464 | Read the fine print            | czytać drobny druk             | Always read the fine print.                            |
| 465 | Run counter to                 | być sprzecznym z               | This policy runs counter to our values.                |
| 466 | See the writing on the wall    | widzieć, co się świeci         | He saw the writing on the wall and resigned.           |
| 467 | Set something in motion        | zapoczątkować                  | That decision set everything in motion.                |
| 468 | Sit well with you              | być do zaakceptowania          | That compromise sits well with me.                     |

| No  | Idiom                               | Znaczenie   | Użycie w zdaniu   |
|-----|-------------------------------------|---|---|
| 469 | Split hairs                         | czepiać się szczegółów                            | Let's not split hairs.   |
| 470 | Stack the odds against someone      | ustawić kogoś na straconej pozycji                | The rules stack the odds against small businesses.             |
| 471 | Stick your neck out                 | narażać się                                       | She stuck her neck out for him.                                |
| 472 | Strike a chord                      | trafić do odbiorców                               | The speech struck a chord.                                     |
| 473 | Take something with a pinch of salt | podchodzić sceptycznie                            | Take his claims with a pinch of salt.                          |
| 474 | That's a tall order                 | to spore wyzwanie                                 | Finishing today is a tall order.                               |
| 475 | Toe the line                        | podporządkować się zasadom                        | Employees must toe the line.                                   |
| 476 | Turn a corner                       | wyjść na prostą                                   | The company has finally turned a corner.                       |
| 477 | Under the surface                   | pod pozorami                                      | There's tension under the surface.                             |
| 478 | Upset the apple cart                | zepsuć układ                                      | He didn't want to upset the apple cart.                        |
| 479 | Walk a fine line                    | balansować na granicy                             | She walks a fine line as a manager.                            |
| 480 | Weigh your options                  | rozważyć możliwości                               | Take time to weigh your options.                               |
| 481 | What's at stake                     | co jest stawką                                    | He knows what's at stake.                                      |
| 482 | Without missing a beat              | bez wahania                                       | She answered without missing a beat.                           |
| 483 | Work something out                  | rozwiązać problem                                 | We'll work it out.   |
| 484 | Worth its weight in gold            | na wagę złota                                     | Good advice is worth its weight in gold.                       |
| 485 | Write something off                 | spisać na straty                                  | Don't write him off yet.                                       |
| 486 | A slippery slope                    | śliski grunt                                      | That decision is a slippery slope.                             |
| 487 | Beyond a shadow of a doubt          | bez cienia wątpliwości                            | She's guilty beyond a shadow of a doubt.                       |
| 488 | Cut both ways                       | działać w dwie strony                             | Honesty cuts both ways.  |
| 489 | Hold water                          | mieć sens   | That argument doesn't hold water.                              |
| 490 | Push the envelope                   | przesuwać granice                                 | The company keeps pushing the envelope.                        |
| 491 | Shift the blame                     | zrzucać winę na kogoś innego                      | Instead of taking responsibility, he tried to shift the blame. |
| 492 | Draw a line under something         | zamknąć sprawę i iść dalej                        | Let's draw a line under this mistake and move on.              |
| 493 | Open a can of worms                 | otworzyć puszkę Pandory, wywołać lawinę problemów | Asking that question opened a can of worms.                    |

fluentbe.com